“ I wish to express my condolences as you endure the loss of your love one. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times the loss may be unbearable. During this most difficult time, Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. For additional encouraging information please visit www.jw.org

“ My dear friends, my heart is filled love and gratitude to the Lord for allowing me to enjoy Gladys as a part of my life. Her creativity, wisdom, sweetness, generosity, joy of life, and love of her family blessed me. I want to share a remembrance that just epitomizes who Gladys was: at one of our birthday celebrations at a tea room, Gladys was in the gift shop in conversation with a stranger, a young cancer patient who admired th Gladys's hat for its design and warmth. Without hesitation, Gladys looked tenderly at the girl, took the hat off her own head, placed it on the girl's partially bald head, and said "Looks better on you than on me, you keep it." Yup! That was Gladys!

Love all of you,

Betty
