“ I did not know Glenn, but while doing a prayer walk around OSCS today preceding my kindergartener's first day of school next week, I came upon the lovely memorial stone and benches set beneath the trees. Thank you for this special place so all who walk these paths may know of your precious son. I do not know your immeasurable loss but do know the deep love for a child, and I have prayed for your family today.
In Christ's love,

“ Words can not express how much this family has meant to us over the years. Glenn has become a big part of our lives. In light of eternity it would be wonderful to experience Who he is getting to be with, Christ. What we kept hearing about his faith in some very trying times was awesome. You guys done a wonderful job raising Glenn in a Christian home. He is doing well has a new body and you will see him again.

“ My heart breaks for the entire family. Glenn was such a precious young man. We have memories all through school of him and our son. May God give you comfort and peace with knowing that Glenn is in Heaven where there is no more pain. Our prayers are with you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I know first hand your pain. I lost my 22 yr. old son may 3 2015.
this is by far the hardest experience ive ever encountered. there are no words, just know im praying, many prayed for me and I could feel it and it helped- so now I pray for you and your family.
