I knew Gloria Fay since we were teenagers. She and some of her brothers would visit our church, and after church we would go to Atlanta to the all night Gospel singings. We made some wonderful memories together. We attended church together in Watkinsville for the past 9 years. I will truly miss Gloria Fay, but I am comforted in knowing that she is in the arms of Jesus. I love you Gloria and I will see you again one day. My love and prayers are with your precious family.
