“ I'm sorry to learn of great Uncle Tom's passing. His sister, Lawrie Autry, is my grandmother. I last talked with him several years ago when they came to visit her, but i didn't get to visit in person at that time. the last time i saw them was when i was a little girl and they were visiting my grandparents in nashville. Recently i had been wondering how he was doing and if the phone numbers i have were still current. i feel fortunate to have known 8 of Irene "mama" jones' 10 surviving children.

“ I am saddened to hear of Uncle Tom's death. I never really got a chance to know him. My father, Wally F. Jones, Jr. was his brother. I had a chance to be around him way back in the '60s when I was living with Aunt Burlie in Chamblee. My heart goes out to his family.
