

Grace McClellan Graves

May 22, 1928 - October 20, 2024

Grace McClellan (Martin) Pye Graves passed away peacefully on October 20, 2024 in Lawrenceville, Georgia, leaving a void that cannot be filled. Grace, the beloved mother of 4 children; Carlah Luck (John) of Redlands, California, Robert Graves (Janice) of Wellington, Maine, Steven Graves (Sandra) of Land O'Lakes, Florida, and Kenneth Graves (Janet) of Buford, Georgia; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Grace was preceded in death by her husband of 48 years, Leo Graves. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Buford, the Upper Room Sunday school class, and the Silvertones choir.

Grace had an unswerving faith in and devoted love for her Savior, Jesus Christ. This faith and love guided her life. She stood on the promise that Christ had prepared a heavenly home for her and her family is comforted to know that Grace was welcomed home by the open arms of Christ who gently whispered in her ear, "Well done, good and faithful servant".

Grace loved to travel and enjoyed living in the many places that the U S Air Force sent the family. She was an expert seamstress, loved playing Bridge, and enjoyed spending time with her many friends and her large extended family. A Celebration of Life will be held at Flanigan Funeral Home, 11:00 A.M. on November 16, 2024, Memorial gifts may be made to Compassion International, 12290 Voyager Parkway, Colorado Springs, CO 80921 (account number at 00968242) or online at compassion.com/ways-to-donate.

“Grandma Grace” as I knew her was the embodiment of a warm smile. Each time I saw Grace with Taylor, Ken, and Janet, she offered a hug and genuine interest in how I was doing. I carry truly joyful memories of sharing meals and laughter around her table. She had the ability to make everyone feel seen and cared for. In fact, she’s the only Grandma who has ever DM’ed me on Instagram! She was a cut above her generation when it came to interacting with young people.

Praise God, you are now Home in Heaven, Grace. Thank you for the “Grace” you gave us all. My love to her dear family.
