“ Aunt Grace,

You will be missed alot you are in heaven now rejoicing with a new body and seeing all the love ones there.

You started babysitting me at 6 weeks old when my mom Eleanor your sister had to return to work after I was born. You kept me all the way up till I was 13 years old.

I will treasure all of our memories we shared and did together.

And yes I will miss my favorite Chocolate and Lemon Meringue Pies you bake and also had waiting for me when I got off the school bus.

Thank goodness for memories.

I Love You,

Sheila Jordan

“ Aunt Grace, you are going to be missed so much, but I know that you're in heaven in a much better place. I still remember all the great an wonderful memories we've had together. As a little girl I won't forget the times when I stayed with you at your house and all the laughter and good food you always fixed. And how can I not forget the yummy black walnut cake you always prepared. I love you very much and look forward to seeing you one day and all the loved ones that have passed.

Love,

Greg, Angie and Brandon Harrison
