“ Connie, Stephen, Summer:
So sorry for your loss. I enjoyed getting to know Greg over the past 2 years and he was an incredible help to me being new to the industry. He was very thorough and unbelievably knowledgeable. He had seen everything in his many years in the industry and could point out the pros/cons of different designs, and why they were done that way. One of the best things about Greg was his humor. He made learning a true joy and I would look forward to our sessions. One of the most passionate guys I ever met....about everything he did. He was inspiring in how he lived and an example to us all. We will miss him!

“ Greg was completely woven into the fabric of Pangborn and so many peoples lives. I've heard his voice constantly over the last few days as the many daily issues arise that he was a part of. Those conversations continue, and his memory and impact on this company will live on for many years. I'll miss him as a great employee, comedian and friend. That infectious laugh...! I can still hear him. Connie and Stephen - I hope you find comfort knowing his memory will live on with many of us here.
