

Harold Conway Brown

November 11, 1950 - February 17, 2024

Harold Conway Brown of Flowery Branch, Georgia, age 73, died after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer on February 17, 2024. Harold, born on November 11, 1950 in Crawford Long Hospital in Atlanta, Georgia, was the second child of the late Harold C. Brown formally of Wheeler County Georgia and the late Geneva Wilson Brown formally of Warren County Georgia. In 1965 he graduated from Druid Hills High School and attended Southern Tech in Marietta, GA. He followed in his father's footsteps and became a skilled electrician. Harold also became a master in all things related to construction. For example, in the last months of his life, he designed and help build an addition to the home he and his son shared.

Along the way, Harold married the late Claudia Harris and had two children: daughter Layla Brown Mroczka and son Harold Conway Brown III both of whom currently reside in Flowery Branch, GA. At the end of his life, Harold was comforted by his devoted family, many friends and the hospice nurses who cared for him.

Harold was known for his off-beat sense of humor and love of the dogs in his life. In his teens, Harold began a lifelong appreciation of automotive mechanics and readily offered to help repair family and friends' cars. Cooking was another skill that he freely shared with others. Harold is especially remembered for his barbecue and the beautiful birthday cakes he made for each of his granddaughters.

Harold is survived by his beloved daughter Layla (Andy), granddaughters Mila and Lia Mroczka, son Conway (Tristen), grandsons Bryson, Brown and Eli Harrison. His sisters Lisabeth Moulder of Tucker, GA and Sandy Lecours of Cumberland, Rhode Island also survive him. In addition, Harold was blessed to have had a large chosen family of loved ones and friends. He will be missed.

The family will receive friends on Wednesday evening, February 21, 2024 at Flanigan Funeral Home in Buford, GA from 4:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. A memorial service will be announced at a later date.

“ I have been wondering about Harold. I saw him frequently at Sam's at my samples cart. He was usually buying a rotisserie chicken for his dog 😊.

I enjoyed many conversations with him over the last 2 years . One of the last was us talking about Brunswick stew and him making for the local firemen. I told him about my dad adding ground beef to his. The last time I saw him, he told me he had taken my suggestion and made it. He said he would bring me some the next time he came to Sam's. He had told me about his battle with pancreatic cancer and I was so sorry to learn about his illness. I know he is free from pain now. I knew him only briefly, but it was my pleasure. RIP Harold. 💖

“ What can we say about Harold, not enough words,one of a kind to start with! I 1st met him in the parking of the IRS building in Gainesviles about 10yrs ago,he wanted to by my corvette,after that my husband began a special friendship with him we actually lived on the same street! Harold bugged me for 8yrs for that car and then I made his day on that Saturday he came by and I said this is your lucky day, go get the money,he was like a kid in a candy store he was so happy and I was happy for him! We will truly miss him coming by sharing food from house to house,doing projects etc.He always made me laugh better than anyone could just being him because he was really a genuine real person.My husband's buddy is gone in physical but not in spirit,he will always be here at 5936 river rd hanging out!! “ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends of Harold Brown, especially to my 2nd cousins, Layla and Conway, children of Harold and my great Aunt Claudia. Take comfort in knowing that he is in heaven now feeling no pain.

“ This was quite a shock to me as I received a call from Conway on Sunday morning. I have only known Harold for a short time but if I were to connect the dots from the time I have known to times of past, wow what a super person. I had the pleasure of meeting Harold the first time going to a concert. While working on a project with Conway in Dahlonga, I received notice of a guest not being able to go the concert. Conway mentioned to me his dad would love to go. With his seat readily available, I needed to set the plans in motion which incorporated picking up my guests. As I was setting the schedule, I thought the timeline for comfort of Harold I should pick him up last and drop him off first due to his age. What a mistake that would have been. I am glad I did not do that and rather picked him up first. So, I arrived at his home with a limousine to head out...first his neighbors took pictures of him. We went to Dahlonga and then back to Gainesville picking up the other 6 guests. Hence, we had time to chat and enjoy his company since I never met him before. He enjoyed a drink of Johnny Walker Blue scotch along the ride and then prime rib at Crossroads Bar and Grille in Flowery Branch. The concert we went to was the Rolling Stones at Mercedes Benz. Although we were in row 3, Harold set off to find better seats....I thought. His passion at the concert was set in motion as he danced with many of the Ladies. He truly lived by the rule of "never met a stranger". This was the first concert/outing I have been involved with where not one person in the group knew all the others. The group range in age from 30's to Harold. AND Harold showed everyone up with his love of life. BTW. this date also happened to be his birthday.

After the show and into the future I would see Harold all over town....mostly at Sams.

Conway, we all share your loss but do understand you not only lost your dad but a great friend. You are deep in our hearts and prayers.

“ Harold Brown was one in a million! His boisterous personality would draw any stranger to him. Over the years, I've enjoyed knowing Harold through Layla, his daughter, while getting my hair done. Harold was funny and always put a smile on my face. Oh, he loved Layla and Conway. they were his world as were Mila and Lia. Rest high on that mountain, your work on earth is done. You were truly loved by many. Layla and Conway, I'm praying for all of you during this time of loss.
