“ 28 years ago, Harold and Nell Davis bought my home and made it their home. I was so sad to sell it, but it became a beautiful home for their family. Such good people and great friends and neighbors we became to each other.

“ It seems unreal to know that you have left us too 💔 Heartbreak and sadness have filled our world today. I know your world just came alive ! I will always have sweet memories of having some of my birthday parties at yours and Nell's house, Christmas gatherings at grandmother and papas house with you, my daddy , Wendell and all the grand boys gathered around the TV watching football or everyone watching Christmas parades etc. Harold you will always be loved and will never be forgotten. See you again soon..
