Today we join with so many others gathering in Georgia to celebrate the life of Evangelist Harold Woodson. Thankful to have met this man of God 4 years ago ad he attended citylife church in Tampa before moving to GA. Our family got to know Harold not just at church, but over several lunches and dinners and running him to the grocery store from time to time. Tonight for dinner I think we'll have his favorite in honor of him, Bang Bang Shrimp from Bonefish Grill. God worked through Harold Woodson, helping many ministries and churches and he ministered with so many over the years. He would often share a good story from running together with the likes of Pastor Rod Parsley, Bishop TD Jake's or Benny Hinn. His signature "Well" shouted out in a service or after someone would share some wisdom will continue to resonate with me. Thankful for Harold and that God had our paths cross in this life, and I'm sure he'll be welcoming us - giving us a "Well" that day we're called home.

In honor of Harold's new season with Jesus in heaven, I've linked one of his messages at Rod Parsley's Camp Meetings called, NEW SEASON (about this same time tomorrow) - Evangelist Harold Woodson

Begins at the 47:30 min mark...
