“ Haroldene Scroggs was one of the most of the hardest working woman I have ever known. She always had a smile on her face, she always helped anyone that needed help. She loved her kids dearly and talked about them constantly at one point in my life she help me through very traumatic experience and she was my ride and die kind of friend, I am very saddened by this, but I'm also very happy and rejoicing, knowing that when she got to heaven, she was greatly rewarded and she's probably dancing and singing and clapping in front of Jesus and seeing all of her friends who have gone on before her I will take everything she taught me and treasure the truths like fine diamonds. I love y'all deeply and thankyou for sharing her with me.
