Harriett was a wonderful lady & cousin. We were blessed to have so many cousins who feel more like sisters & brothers. She was so good to me. We got close when our mothers who were sisters were ill & died. We talked every day for years. I miss her already. Love & blessings for all, especially her immediate family, Bill, Rhonda, children & grands, even a great grand. Love all of you & my precious cousins. John 17:20 Jesus prayed for us believers. 🙏

I went to Therrell with Harriett. She was that "it" girl -- so beautiful, friendly, caring and just everything to everyone. I renewed friendship with her over the last few years and she was still that special person. Thoughts and prayers to her family and friends.
