“ I sure did love Hazel. I met her when I was 16 years old not knowing that she was best friends with Kellie's mom, Barbara Lucas. I worked at a tanning bed and Hazel would come in to tan after getting her nails done. We would chat & laugh. Her visits to the tanning bed would be the highlight of my workday. I was blessed to be reintroduced to her later in my life when going to visit Kellie. Hazel always had a huge smile and bright eyes. She was a kind soul. She loved everyone. Hazel never met a stranger! I was so blessed to know her. To know her was to love her & she loved back with her whole heart. I love you, Hazel. You certainly blessed my life & I thank you for your love. May you rest in peace. I will always cherish our memories. ☐ 🙏

Hazel was my second cousin. We live in Anniston. Her mother was my grandmothers Sister. We are saddened to see this announcement. We are so happy to know she had wonderful friends.
