

Helen Marie Maney Hubble

June 14, 1936 - August 20, 2025

June 14, 1936 – August 20, 2025

It is with deep love and sadness that we announce the passing of Helen Marie Maney Hubble, age 89, of Buford, Georgia. Helen was born on June 14, 1936, in Hiawassee, North Carolina, to Milus Lowranzy Maney and Clelie Hamby Maney. She entered her eternal rest on August 20, 2025, surrounded by love. Helen was the youngest of nine children and the final link in a close-knit family. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Vernon Hubble, and her siblings John Maney, Ferd Maney, Vandora Maney Martin, Milus Maney, Gold Maney, Ella Vee (Vickie) Maney Danopoli, Ernest Maney, and Ruth Maney Wishon.

Though Helen never had children of her own, she lived her life with a wide embrace, sharing her heart freely with nieces, nephews, and friends who quickly became like family. Her niece Charlotte Dixon was her faithful companion and caregiver for the past ten years, walking beside her with patience, love, and compassion. She leaves behind many nieces and nephews who will forever cherish the laughter, warmth, and music she brought into their lives. Many have memories of spending time with Aunt Helen watching Matlock, Murder She Wrote, and so many other old school shows and movies while snuggled together.

A Life of Music, Faith, and Love

Helen's love for music was a gift she generously shared. With a guitar in hand and a voice filled with spirit, she often gathered family and friends to sing gospel hymns that lifted hearts and bound loved ones together. She loved entertaining and spending time with loved ones. Music was her ministry, and through it she showed others the joy of faith, fellowship, and family.

Helen was an active member of her church for many years, where she found joy in worshiping God and serving others. Even when she was no longer able to attend services, her faith remained strong and her heart full of gratitude.

She was always ready to lend a helping hand, a listening ear, or a song to lift someone's spirits. She was quick to help, and quick to grab any able-bodied friend or family member to hang curtains or move furniture around. She carried off golden sneakers better than anyone we know.

Her life was defined by kindness, generosity, and the ability to make everyone feel at home. To know Helen was to be welcomed into her circle of love.

“ Aunt Helen was such a huge part of my life. Like a grandparent, she showed up. Birthdays, graduations, weddings, funerals... she was there. I have so many memories of celebrating milestones with her, but also spending quiet time at her house when I would spend a few days with her and Uncle Vernon. While there I would help water her garden that she loved - full of azaleas, dogwood trees, and hydrangeas (lovingly called "hydrangulas" by Aunt Helen). We would also snuggle up on her bed to watch old movies and murder mystery shows. There was plenty of down time, but it did give me time to read Reader's Digest and discover many a miracle diet.

When I think about her - I think of her love of music, shiny things, Uncle Vernon, and of all things Christmas. On her last day, her room was filled with so many people who loved her so dearly. Her niece Laura with her husband Rusty sang "In the Garden" and "Amazing Grace" along with "You Ain't Woman Enough to Steal My Man" and "Elvira" and all four of those were so perfect for Aunt Helen. A joyful noise to God, along with a hint of spice. I am so sad to say goodbye to Aunt Helen, but am peaceful that she is no longer suffering. We can all only hope to leave this world like she did - knowing how well she was loved and surrounded with it in her last minutes. Aunt Helen, I know that you are reunited with Vernon and are surrounded by beautiful flowers, wearing you shiny gold sneakers again.

“Helen was a beautiful soul who deeply loved our Lord Jesus Christ with all her heart. She reflected this love by genuinely loving others, helping in any way she could. She truly loved life. The joy of the Lord helped her through some devastating moments. She had a strength and tenacity to forge ahead, refusing defeat, believing better days were just ahead. Helen loved flower gardens, people and entertaining. Finally free of the body that tormented her, I visualize her walking hand in hand with Vernon and Jesus, total joy and peace radiating from her as she reunites with all who went before her. Charlotte and Shirle, she so cherished your love care and devotion to her. I will miss her until I get to see her again in Heaven. Karen
