“ *Jeannie - Sorry, there are so many ways to spell your name -- it isn't like we talked just yesterday. :)
I too have good memories of you and your family on Brentwood; going through the Alton school system, playing after school.....good days. My best to you and your family at the loss of your Mom.

“ I was scanning through the Alton Telegraph obituary section and noticed a familiar name-Helen Nuzum. My Mom, Molly, and I express our sympathies. Just a refresher--we moved into 415 Brentwood Blvd., next to your house, (Dad built our house) in 1949. Nice neighborhood with friendly neighbors. My Dad, Victor, and brother, Richard, died as have the Millers and Middlecoffs. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Greetings from the old Brentwood neighborhood in Alton. May Helen rest in peace. She's now having a great reunion with all her many friends and loved one's. May those happy memories console you in your time of grief. (Nelson and Helen Miller's son).

“ I remember my grandmother, Sandy Knight (Helen's sister), telling me nice stories about her sister. I can't recall the details, but I can recall the love in my grandma's voice for her sister.

“ Helen was never afraid to make us laugh. I will never forget her Halloween costumes at a Smoky Springs party. One year she pasted a wiggly eye to her forehead as a third eye and wore old bib overalls! Very original.
I feel so blessed that she and Walter lived at Smoky and I got to get to know them.
