“ Dear Henry's Family: My sincere sympathy to all of you, especially Eleanor. I lost my sweet husband, Len, over 14 years ago, so I know the pain of losing a spouse. Henry was an IRS friend of Len and mine since we moved to Atlanta in 1980. I worked for Henry for several years and our last few years together as Department Managers in the new Customer Service Center. What a great guy! Everyone loved and respected Henry so much. I know he's in a better place now and out of pain and suffering. God bless and comfort all of you through these difficult days. Henry would want you to be happy.....Pam Glismann

We were so sorry to hear about Henry. He was such a wonderful person and boss. I was his secretary in the early 80's and he was such a pleasure to work for. We remained friends through out our government service. May God give you and your family strength and peace to get through this loss.*

“ Dear Ele, James & Family;

We are both deeply saddened by the loss of Henry, our wonderful neighbor on Bayside Court who quickly became a lifelong friend. Remember the good times we had with the rest of the Holiday Pines Neighbors, the the HOA meetings and parties, Trick or Treating with the grandkids, and that special Caribbean Cruise we took together out of Puerto Rico. Henry will be greatly missed and I know that we will think of him often. Henry truly was a kind, considerate and loyal Friend, perhaps the best friend I ever had and he will be greatly missed. His smile could light up the room and his laughter was contagious. I know this may seem a bit cliché but we both know that Henry is in a much better place, surrounded by the shining light of Our Lord & Savior Jesus Christ. He is at peach having earned his reward here on Earth several times over. May the fact that he loved his wife and family so much console you. Remember always that Henry was loved by many and although we will miss his physical presence, we will all have a chance to see his warm, kind and gentle smile of his once again when Our Lord calls us back Home. In the meantime, Our sincere and deepest condolences on your loss. We are both here if you need a shoulder to lean as Friends are Friends Forever. Chris & Sharon Fabian
