“ I recently was at Pinelawn cemetery visiting my parents and upon entering the courtyard, something told me to stop and I looked up to my left to notice a name on the wall, I saw it was Herbert Mohaupt, 1943 to 2012, and at that moment I realized this person was my uncle and this was his final resting place. I'm very sorry to see his passing, I always felt a warm friendship with my uncle, unfortunately time and distance make people lose touch, but I'm happy to see he's close to my parents and I will always stop to pay my respects when visiting the cemetery in the future and fondly think about times gone by.

“ Herbi was a very dear friend to me. Will miss him very much. I loved hearing his stories over the last year and half while setting at the bar and drinking a beer. From his youth in Metz, his stories of his life in NYC, to his trips out West. My friend all of your drinking buddies are going to miss you at Frontera.
