“ I wish to express my condolences as you endure the loss of your love one. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times the loss may be unbearable. During this most difficult time, Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. For additional encouraging information please visit www.jw.org

“ *Herman's mother and my mother were sisters, his father and my father were brothers! I did not get to see him very often as I live in Florida, but I always knew he was there and that meant the world to me. Please know that you have my deepest Sympathy . I know that there is little I can say to console you but please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you at this very sad and difficult time. We know that we must accept his passing and give thanks for the wonderful life he lived. As sad as it will be, we will always have the memory of him to hold in our hearts.
God Bless,

“ Herman Brown was my first cousin and while I have been separated my many miles for many years I shall never forget his good and cheerful way of life. Herman's Mother and my Mother were sisters and I remember Herman and his extended family visiting our home and attending the reunions of Grand Ma and Grandpa White. Herman was an original who served along with my older brothers in WW 2. Our deepest sympathy goes out to his family.
