“ Bug was married to my cousin, Mary Sue. I always enjoyed hearing Bug laugh and tell stories. Yes, he was loud, but he was always in a good mood when I was around him and fun to be with. I know he is with our Lord and Savior and telling jokes to the others in heaven.

“ When my now adult daughter was in the White acounty High School marching band, Bug was often the bus driver that would haul her and her band mates to and from different schools for football games. He was always her favorite driver, full of good cheer, which was always welcome after white Couty would lose.

“ This gentleman was always so sweet and nice to us, we always got to see him when going to Jax’s birthday parties! He always asked about my daughter Elizabeth as he knew she was medically complex, and would tell us he would pray for her. The world will definitely not be the same without this amazing man!
