“ Bill and Betty became our friends when we moved to Commerce Georgia in 1986. Bill and I had several common interests including flying. Bill was a private pilot and owned an airplane for a few years. Together, we flew around North Georgia and visited airshows. On a trip to Oshkosh, Wisconsin, the flight was full of pilots headed to this major airshow. Before the flight had ended, Bill had made new friends and we had an offer of a place to stay at no charge. This was the type of man he was and he will be missed by all.

“ Betty, we have so many happy memories of you and Bill, memories that go back many years. But more importantly, we have a wonderful hope to sustain us. We will soon welcome Bill back, it is only time and we all know how fast time passes. In the meantime, we will surely all miss him very much...he was a wonderful person and set many good examples for us all. We trust that Jehovah will comfort you and we pray that your faith and hope in all of his beautiful promises will sustain you in the days to come. Our Love,
