“ *I think Ive cut Mr. Cantrell's hair for about 11 or 12 years now. I just heard of his passing. I looked forward to seeing him each and every time once a month.He was one of the most respectful, kindest men I've known. we shared many stories over the years always with a smile and little laugh he had. they say God brings special people into your life I truly believe he was one of those people. I will miss him greatly. God bless your family at this time.

“ Barry and I heard about Hugh's death on Tuesday. So sorry to miss paying our respects. We went to church with Hugh and Betty for many years and Mr. Hugh always made us feel special and important. He probably did this with everyone, which was a beautiful gift he shared with us all. Our thoughts and prayers are with Betty and the rest of the family. Truly, our loss- Heaven's gain!

“ Betty & family, I had the pleasure for many years to be a friend to Hugh. He was a great friend and one of the nicest persons that I ever knew. I regret that we didn't stay in closer contact with each other, but my admiration for him never lacked. I wish I could have been at his service but my health would not allow it. It will be a great honor for me and Julia to make a contribution to Hugh's church in his honor.

“Hugh was the sunshine of everyday - he'd bring the mail and always a smile. He had a heart for everyone and never an ill word spoken. He has wonderful stories of life - I learned so many little things from Hugh. He and Ms. Betty have a special place in my heart. Hugh made the world a better place he cared for everyone. He was honest as the day is long and honorable, he talked about hard times growing up and expressed how great they really were how his mom and dad gave them all such great love. He set an example by living the way Christ wants each of us to live. I am sadden that he is no longer on this earth but rejoice that I was blessed to call him a friend. Heaven will have lots of conversations with Hugh among the angels. May God Bless your family and guide them to find peace in the treasured memories. Terry

“ I had the pleasure of working with Hugh at Bank of North Georgia. Hugh would always bring a smile to anyone's face. When my daughter was born Hugh sent her a wonderful gift from the heart. He was always thinking of others. When anyone was having a rough day Hugh would be there to cheer you up. My thoughts and prayers go out to Hugh's family during their time of loss. I know the Lord will comfort you through this. Thanks for sharing such a wonderful man with the world. It was truly an honor to know him.
