“ Karen and all the other family. I don't know if you remember me, but Irene and I went thru school together. I was a Bradford. I knew she had been having health issues but didn't know how to get in touch with her since she was not able to come to the class reunion. I'm so sorry to read this. (I'm a little behind with my "keeping up"). Praying for all of you. May God bless you all.

“ Brandy, I write this mostly to you because you n I have been more than friends, but like sisters honestly our whole lives. Your Momma was Grandma Rene to the girls, n you Aunt Brandy. It just hit me when I came across Miss Irene's post in the paper online. I'm so sorry for you, for Josh, Dayleen, n for Jeromy's loss. I know what it feels like to lose your Mom, n it's the worst feeling in the world. Know I am ALWAYS here for you..no matter what! Just to talk, if you need a shoulder to cry on, or help with anything. I didn't know she had a service or I would have been there with the girls. You have always been there for me n for Jozz n Jenevea. You helped raise them as did your Momma when they were younger. She will always be a part of our lives, as will you n your family! We love you, n again I am so so sorry for your loss! Your Momma was such a God send..n you can see her in each one of you kids, especially you Brandy! She will live on through her memories, her children, grandchildren, n family! I love you guys! May you rest in His arms forever more Grandma Rene!! We love you, Jozzlin n Jenevea!! <3 Love, Danielle, Jozzlin, n Jenevea “ Jeremy I know there are no words that can lessen the amount of pain you feel. Jeremy your mother was a great woman and I could not have asked for a better woman to have been my daughter's mother-in-law. She is now watching over you from a much better place.
