“ *Mr. Jack was a kind and gentle man. He shared his stories and loved to write notes to his caregivers. Jack was so kind and loving to everyone. I loved to hear Jack pray at dinner time with his friend Casey. It was my pleasure and honor to meet Jack at Charter Senior Living. I looked forward to hearing him say hello every morning. Everyone loved Jack and won't forget his kind smile and funny laugh. We all miss him but know he is not lost for he loved the Lord Jesus Christ. Rest in peace my Friend. Dearest Jack, after looking for you for some time, I just found your obituary. All of us from the 1950s at RGNS will miss you terribly. You shared so many of your memories with us of your high school days. They came to life for us. I know you are with your Heavenly Father now. Rest in Peace, my friend.
