“ My gosh Jack could brighten up your mornings. Always met me with a smile and a joke, every morning during our breakfasts at The Rexall Grill, for over two decades.

Erik Richards - March 28, 2025 at 08:27 AM

“ Our family got to know Jack through our sons, Joseph and Sean, and baseball and basketball. Many memories made with the two families and shenanigans with the boys. Jack loved his family. May he now rest in peace.

Praying for Jack's family for strength and comfort.
I worked with Jack for 13 1/2 years at the Ins. Agency and he always kept us laughing with his hunting tales. Once we put some fake Ducks in front of the building. He laughed about that joke. I have not seen Jack in years but RIP . ❤️🙏❤️

*Dear Karen,
I am so sad for you bc he is so suddenly gone as my Gary was. One lady at our meal had lost her husband & she told me to go have a good time bc he is having a very good time, not suffering. The prettiest flowers will be blooming, I knew Jack since VBS & remember him well & was a nice guy. I will be praying for God's comfort to surround you & yours. 🙏✝️*
