

Jack Anthony Pyle

July 5, 1953 - February 26, 2022

Jack Anthony Pyle passed away on February 26, 2022 from a long and heroic battle with cancer. He was born on July 5, 1953, in Augusta, GA to Alice Fernandez Pyle and Jackie Grady Pyle.

An environmental scientist, Tony was a Certified Environmental Trainer at the Georgia Water and Wastewater Institute. He then was an environmental trainer, Adopt-A-Stream coordinator, and laboratory manager for Gwinnett County government from which he retired. In retirement he became the environmental compliance manager for Pilgrim's poultry plant in Gainesville, GA.

Tony enjoyed boating, camping, and fishing as well as spending time with his family.

Because of his long illness he was an inactive member of First Baptist Church in Gainesville but active in his faith at home.

Tony was preceded in death by his parents and by his brother Douglas.

He is survived by his wife Gail Carney Pyle, his daughters Kristin Tucker (Anthony) of Flagler Beach, Florida, Kathryn Youngblood (Jeremy) of Loveland, Colorado, Nichole Fuller (Alex) of Toccoa, Georgia and grandsons Tristan Youngblood and William and Wesley Tucker, Rhett Fuller granddaughters Avery Youngblood and Stella Fuller.

At his request, no services will be held.
