“ Mrs Porter, I didn't read the obituary well, too shocked and sad. When I read it again I saw that you have lost Johnny too. I'm sorry beyond belief. That's too much for 1 person. You're in my heart and prayers. Joshua, your mom thought the world of "my sweet baby Joshua." You were the prettiest baby boy I have ever seen. Your mom and I had so much fun in school. I'm 3rd grade we played house in the ditch at the elementary school. Jackie always grabbed a branch with lots of leaves and got to sweeping. She made me be the kid lol. Even in 3rd grade she wanted a boy baby first. She got her wish ❤️

“ Jacque was one of the smartest person on school. She had a great sense of humor and was always kind. She will be missed.

“ I met Jacque in grade school. We became fast friends. She was always that little girl with the long blonde hair, who walked on her tip toes. I often thought of her and wondered where she lived. Today when I read the news, it gripped my heart because she was still so young and we had not yet reconnected. Prayers for her family!

Yes Kelly, we will meet her again in Heaven. Jackie - I'm sorry, Jaque - had beautiful long blonde hair. And a very pretty smile. I loved her dearly and always will. Oh if we could have just found her before this!

“Jackie was my best friend from 3rd grade until graduation when we lost touch. I saw her last at our 10th school reunion. She left early to go home to her baby, Joshua. I'm so very sorry, Joshua, Miss Norma, Joyce and Johnny! I've searched for her for so long. Now I know we will meet each other again in Heaven. Love, Susan Mundy Brittingham, McAlester, Oklahoma

“My sweet, sweet Jacque... I couldn't close my eyes last night without seeing your smile. I know that you woke up in Heaven and you are so happy to first be with Jesus, then of course your Husband, Daddy and your brother Johnny that had the same funny sense of humor that your did...dry at times but funny. Mrs. Porter, Jimmy, Marie, Joshua, Kayte...my prayers are with you now and in the days to come. I love you my friend!!!
