“Nika and family, I will truly miss Ms Jacquie, she was a good friend to myself and my cousin Anita, Dynasty, Margaret and Aunt Sarah. She was a lady who would talk to you and make you feel good about yourself and always smiling. Call on us if you need anything. I have a poem to celebrate her life, her love, her memory.

"Celebrating You":

"Dear Jacquie, we're all assembled

We've come to honor you

To share sweet recollections

And express our gratitude.

You were a great example

Of the best way one can live

Your generous, loving spirit

Was a daily gift you chose to give.

And we knew that we were privileged

To know someone so dear

You shared our lives, both the good and bad

Our true friend throughout the years.

You took each day and challenge

Exactly as it came

Your spirit remained steadfast

Life couldn't make you change.

Quite often we would marvel

At the determination found in you

How much we'll miss your courage

And your fearless attitude!

Still we know that you'll continue

To be the incredible soul you are..."

We love you and will miss you greatly, Love Bobbette, Anita Hardy-McCall Family, & Walker Family

She later met my brother, Ernest and they married and had LaNiqua. Jack and I have remained friend all these years. We did not always talk but we emailed each other. I love her very much and will always cherish the times that we had. I pray that God will bless and comfort you at this time.*

“ Dear Grant Family,

I'm a co-worker of Jacquie and I'm greatly saddened by the passing of your Mother and loved one. As well, as deeply saddened for her "Curtis 1000 Family" as well!

With each passing day, I can't help but think about Jacquie! And when I do, I pause and say a pray for you, asking "our Lord" to bring you comfort during your grieving process and, to give you strength with each passing day!

It's so hard to put my hands around the fact I will never see Ms. Jacquie again! I am saddened however, after our many talks; I know "She is in the presence of our Lord".

Does this promise bring you joy right now? Maybe not, because your pain is so real, however there will come a day, when you will draw your strength in knowing this simple truth!

I thank God, he allowed us to cross paths, and He gave us time to enjoy Jacquie while on earth!

Jacquie was a person you looked up to in the workplace! She was a hard worker, and you knew exactly where she stood at all times!

She was open and she never sugar coated anything! That's what I liked so much about your mother! It was her honesty and her work ethics!

Another thing, Jacquie was open about her work life but, yet she could be so personal when it came to her family life!

It was her business, and she felt you didn't need to know everything! However, it was the times when she would open up and share herself with you that I loved the most and I will miss having these times with her!

Lanique, if there is one thing I would share with you is, "The Lord will lighten your load with each passing day, and He will restore your joy!" Rely on the Lord during this most difficult time, and He will carry you through whatever you face.

Goodbye my friend, I will miss seeing you around the workplace!
