

Jacquelyn Irvine

September 30, 1931 - June 11, 2025

On June 11, 2025, Jacquelyn Irvine passed away peacefully in her sleep at the age of ninety-three. She was an elegant woman who held a profound affection for her family and friends. Jacquelyn was a distinguished alumna of Buford High School, class of 1948. She will be remembered for her gentle Southern charm and the countless memories she created through her holiday dinners, which were labors of love for her family. Jacquelyn Marechele Wood Irvine was married for fifty-eight years to her high school sweetheart, Mr. Fred Wood of Sugar Hill. Together, they raised three children: Stanley, Sharon, and Stephen, in Tucker, Georgia. She will also be remembered for her remarkable intellect; she found joy in reading the dictionary for pleasure. Jacquelyn retired from Measurex Corporation and demonstrated exceptional proficiency with technology. After the passing of her first husband, she found companionship with Mr. Doug Irvine through her Match.com account. Jacquelyn generously shared her genealogical records on the Ancestry website under her name. She leaves behind her beloved daughter Sharon, ten grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. Despite the size of her family, Jacquelyn consistently made time for everyone, providing unwavering support and love. She and her husband, Fred, worked tirelessly to create opportunities for their children. A private memorial service honoring her life is scheduled for her family.
