“ Omg where do I even start? This is my father n law and the paw paw to my children. This has got to be one of the hardest things to accept, but like he always told my girls, y'all have 2 days to grieve and then you better celebrate my life! Jimmy was probably tge most accepting non judgmental person I've ever met. And even tho me and his son separated, he NEVER made me feel unwelcome, and made sure I knew I was ALWAYS welcome around him! He was the best paw paw to my girls. He loved his children and grandchildren unconditionally! He was so smart and believed 100% in furthering your education. My girls have shared so many stories with me in the last couple days and they will never forget you paw paw. You made a bigger impact then you ever know! We truly miss you but we know you are in a better place and that you aren't suffering anymore! Until we see each other again, know that there won't be a single day that goes by that we won't be thinking of you down here! P.s put a good word in for me to the big guy! We all know I need it! I'll forever miss your smile abs pep talks we've had.

“ I have several memories of Jimmy. Last time I saw him was September for Dawns birthday. He was playing his guitar and singing those songs he loved. We had a great time. Jimmy was always smiling and welcomed everyone with a smile and a hug hello and goodbye. He will be greatly missed by me and my gang of friends and family. RIP JIMMY..
