“ Mike was my step father- he was a great dad, I learned a lot from him because he cared to take time with me. Lots of wisdom and love. He taught me how to swim and to have honor and integrity when doing things in life. He would say- always do it right or not at all...that has always stayed with me my whole life among other lessons I learned from him. I always felt loved around him. He even wanted to adopt me but unfortunately my biological father wouldn't sign the legal papers. I will miss Daddy Mike, he was a kind soul and loved dogs, I too love dogs and we would talk about raising them. The last time I saw him was last year at Mady and Tyler's wedding- I spent time with him and we talked a lot about life and the future. He was a strong force in my life and I was fortunate to have him in my life. I loved and respected him a lot. Rest In Peace and let your soul continue learning all the wisdom you seek in this universe, daddy Mike. There will be a void in my life now that you were able to fill when you were here. Fly free and embrace all the unconditional love.- Lisa Cater ❤️
