“ So many memories jump through my mind as I think of my grandad, Jim...I used to love sitting around his living room at his lake house hearing stories of him and Uncle Bill and others involving deer hunting, four wheelers or fishing. I love listening to stories my dad shares of him, his siblings and his dad. Combine it all together, and it would make a great book. Something Randy and I remember most is Jim's smile. His kindness and friendly demeanor. He always loved seeing people and cared BIG.
