“ James has gone to "Rest High On That Mountain" like many of our loved ones before him. His suffering has ended but we are left to grieve. May God hold Eva Jean and all her family in His loving arms and give you comfort and peace. You have not lost him because you know where he is! Love you all!

“ Dear Mama, You have made an incredible sacrifice of yourself, time, and energy to serve your son. You were/are the hands and feet of Jesus to your family. You stood up for James when nobody else did. Thank you so much for your sacrifice. Many couldn't understand that James was with us. We heard him say hey to us when they brought him out of the coma at Atlanta Medical; he was sitting up in his bed and looked just like himself. He didn't say much else, but he followed our commands. We asked him to squeeze our hands if he loved us and he did. God sent so many angels in the form of Neuro doctors, nurses, and a wonderful speech pathologist. Truly, you can't understand this type of situation until you've walked it yourself. A pastor shared the gospel with James and said James if you are saved raise your arm and James raised his arm! We believe that James got saved after this accident! i believe that is why James was left here so for that I thank you Heavenly Father! Thank you that you are in control and we are not! My mom was not God! She endured so much through the years but to God be the Glory for Great Things HE has done! We hold our heads up high and praise the God above. Thank you God for saving James and allowing us to love on him these last 10 years. I love you, Jesus! Anita Johnson Hughes
