“ James was my Hero one day. I was coming home from work one day and had a flat tire and was stranded. The only person that could come and help me was James. He came and helped me and I was so grateful. He was my HERO that day. James was at our house all the time growing up. Jamming on the guitar with my son Wes. We are heartbroken and would have done anything for sweet James to help him. We are so sorry for your loss and I promise James will always be remembered in our hearts. I know he is now in God's arms being hugged and loved for all of eternity. He is safe and truly at peace.
