

James "Jim" Patrick Molloy

February 4, 1941 - November 23, 2020

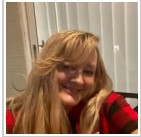

James "Jim" Molloy, age 79, of Sugar Hill, GA passed away November 23, 2020. He was preceded in death by his wife of 55 years, Carol T. Molloy and son, Michael Molloy. He is survived by children, Kathleen Molloy, Port Jefferson, NY, Joseph Costello, Canton, GA, Robert (Alex) Costello, Katonah, NY, Carol Barnett, Sugar Hill, GA, Keith (Mary) Costello, Bayport, NY; seventeen grandchildren; twenty-one great-grandchildren; brothers, Daniel (Carol) Molloy, Villages of Florida, Terrence (Patricia) Molloy, Medford, NY; sister Theresa Molloy Pfeiffer, FL; several nieces, nephews and cousins. Mr. Molloy was born February 4, 1941 in Patchogue, NY. He was a Veteran of the Marine Corps for four years. Mr. Molloy was a graduate of Patchogue High School, Patchogue, NY. He was of the Catholic faith and was a painter. There are no formal services planned at this time.

Tribute Wall

“ James "Jim" Patrick Molloy

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM

“ Uncle Jimmy was such a funny man! So many great memories of 4th of July at his and Aunt Carols. He loved his family and grandkids. So proud of their achievements and would brag about all if his kids.

I remember my dad telling us he was always a trickster as a kid. There was a funny story about grandma Molloy chasing him around with a broom. He will be missed, never forgotten. All if my cousins are in my heart and thoughts. He is with aunt Carol, cousin Michael, his siblings and his parents. I imagine he is having a good catch up, telling jokes with my dad and with the live of his life. Live you Uncle Jimmy ~ Kate

Kate-Marie Molloy - November 25, 2020 at 06:09 PM