“ *To the Payne family:
Our deepest sympathy and family thoughts and prayers go out to you all during this difficult time of the loss of your family, friend and loved one. As we express our condolences, we pray that you all will recover from your loss in due time through prayer and supplication. As the psalmist so carefully worded it, "Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning." So allow yourselves to grieve in your own way but don't stay there. Try to find away to allow joy to once again come into your lives as you celebrate the life that your loved one lived. God Bless!*

“ Our family will always remember DeForrest with love. His smile and stories could light up any room and he always made us laugh and feel welcome. I know he has gone on to meet his Savior and is surrounded by all the family and friends that have gone on before him. We will miss him greatly. Our prayers go out to Elaine and the rest of his family.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Even though I had a short time to know Mr. and Mrs Payne, I found them to be very caring christian people. He was very friendly and welcomed me into their home. I am sure he will be missed and thought of frequently. Without a doubt he was a angel welcomed into God's kingdom. My thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Payne as she gets through the coming days.
