“ Let me start by sending my deepest condolences to Jimmy's family on such a tragic loss. A man so young should never be taken from his family. May God help you through the hard days ahead and the future ones as well. I can't imagine the heartache, but there is one who does, always turn to the arms of The Lord for the love, understanding, comfort and peace that only He can give. I will be praying for the family.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Jimmy on the road a few years ago. And most recent was involved in a project with Him. I spoke to Jimmy on the night of His death. He was a fine man who mention His family often. He was so proud of His kids. He also spoke of the Masons and was a proud member. Jimmy expressed to me how much He enjoyed His new position in His Company. And how much respect He had for Rob Eisenhower the owner of His company. He always had a kind word and a strong handshake every time I saw Him. Jimmy was a honest and a great guy a hard worker and loyal person. I feel I am a better person having known Him. God Bless.

“ We thought the world of Jimmy. He was a devoted, loving husband; a committed father to Cabot and Noah; a caring son to both his father and mother; a thoughtful brother; and a compassionate friend. He was a true humanitarian - always seeking ways to help his fellow Man. There are many laurels to be won in this world and many crowns to be worn, but the greatest victories ever achieved are nothing compared to the friendship Jimmy bestowed upon us. You will be missed our brother in Christ. To his family: "May the Lord bless you and keep you; may he make his face shine upon you and be gracious unto you, may the Lord lift up his countenance to you and give you peace both for now and forevermore. Amen." ~ Pastor Carey and Pam Hudson, North Gwinnett Church

“ Ruth & Gaines ... Growing up with Jimmy was a childhood memory I will always cherish. Ruth, I remember the first time you came to visit at Sugar Hill and how Jimmy was so proud of you and insisted that everyone met you. I thought you were the coolest mom I had ever met just from his excitement over you being there! His sons are so blessed to have such an amazing family and a community to support them and keep Jimmy's spirit alive for them. I pray that God embraces all of you in your time of need. Jimmy will forever be loved! Thank you for sharing him with us.
