

James Stewart, Jr.

February 1, 2016

BUFORD GA - James Albert Stewart Jr. (Jim) of Buford, Georgia passed away peacefully on Monday, February 1, 2016 at the Northeast Georgia Medical Center, Braselton, Georgia at the age of 31. He was born in Atlanta, Georgia on March 29, 1984 to James A. Stewart, Sr. (Jim) and Doria Ann Stewart (Dykes).

He grew up in Lawrenceville, Georgia and attended Berkmar High School graduating in 2002. As a junior at Berkmar Jim served as Sports Editor of the school newspaper "The Liberty". In his senior year he was Editor in Chief. That year, "The Liberty" staff garnered 22 individual awards from the Georgia Scholastic Press Association as well as "Best Editorial Page" for the state of Georgia.

Jim was awarded scholarships to The Universities of Colorado, Georgia, Michigan, Northwestern and ultimately a Chancellors Scholarship to the Syracuse University Newhouse School of Public Communications, graduating Cum Laude in May of 2007 with a Bachelor's of Science in Broadcast Journalism.

After graduation Jim worked as Director Of Broadcasting for Brevard College (N.C.) Department of Athletics, where he was the "Voice of the Tornadoes", delivering play-by-play (his passion) of all major sports and covering several sports as a writer for the Sports Information Department. After his time at Brevard College Jim returned home to Georgia where he worked as a freelance broadcaster, writer and tutor.

God imparted special gifts to Jim, the most evident of those being a true photographic memory. His main focus was sports statistics. He loved to watch and read about all sports especially college football.

A kind, gentle soul with a "Beautiful Mind" is finally at peace.

Surviving are his parents, Jim and Doria Stewart of Buford, GA, a sister, Kristen Stewart and her partner Benjamin Lewis of Buford, GA, paternal grandmother, Maxine Stewart of Kingstown, MD, maternal grandfather, Robert Witt of Duluth, GA, an uncle, Timothy Stewart of Liberty, SC, aunts, Kimberly Johnston of Easton, MD, Simthia Stewart of Rockville, MD, and beloved niece, Kori Lewis of Buford, GA.

A Celebration of Life will be held at The Bridge Community Church, 2026 Braselton Hwy, Buford, GA 30519 on Saturday, February 20th at 3:00 p.m.

Attendees dress will be fanfare of their favorite sports team.

The family request that no flowers be sent and for contributions to be made in memory of Jim at <http://www.atl-spectrum.com/>

“ Dear Doria and family,

We are so very saddened at this heartbreaking news ... Jim will always have a very special place in our hearts. Jim was the first young man to make Our sweet Tessa feel special . Our family shared many sweet memories of him . From soccer games to Six Flags & movies , Jim was fun to have around ...so kind and thoughtful and interested. Truly, our hearts are breaking at the thought of your loss A loss for so many who have loved him . Please know that we grieve with you and we would surely be with you this weekend if we weren't going to be out of town....but our thoughts will be with you and we will celebrate his life and pray that he knows how much he is loved and how much he will be missed . We love you Doria and pray for your family at this difficult time .

With love,

The finke family

“ Dear family of beloved Jim,
We are so very saddened by this tragic news. Jim will always hold a special place in our hearts...he was the very first person to make our Tessa feel so special. He was so much fun to have around at Six Flags and soccer games and just hanging out. I know he always meant the world to Tessa and was loved by our family. We pray that your family finds some comfort in knowing how much Jim was loved by so many ...Our hearts are breaking at the thought of your loss. Wish we could be at the memorial but we will be out of town...Please know that our thoughts will truly be with you ...we grieve with you.

Love,
The Finke Family
