“ We have fond memories of the Tomaszewski family from our years at Bible Baptist Church in Naperville. We had many happy days spent as teenagers in their home, which they were always quick to open. Jim was a happy, gracious, lover of Jesus and his words and actions reflected that love to those around him. Our deepest condolences to the entire Tomaszewski family. Looking forward to that blessed hope we have in Christ of seeing him again. Our prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ Linda & Girls,

I'm so sorry to hear of Jim's passing. I don't know if you remember my maiden name but we lived next door to you on Alison Drive, Flint, MI. My parents Lyman & Bessie Wilburn, I use to babysit Laura, Becki & Jennifer, it's funny how you remember things but your white dog was named Parson because he would always cross his front paws when he laid down. My condolences to you & the girls.
