

Jane Driggers Horah

May 28, 1933 - December 14, 2020

Jane Driggers Horah, age 87 of Buford, GA, passed away December 14, 2020. She was lovingly known as Granny Jane to her family and friends. She was preceded in death by her husband of 40 years, Hugh O. Horah Jr., and her infant son Hugh O. Horah III. She was also preceded in death by her father and mother Rommie and Helen Driggers and Sister, Louise Fail.

Jane was born May 28, 1933 in Daisy, GA. She grew up in Claxton, and worked in Savannah where she met her husband Hugh. She was a retired sales associate of 30 years with Parson's Gifts and Collectibles and a faithful member at Buford First United Methodist Church. She had a beautiful voice and sang in the chancel choir for 59 years. Jane loved working in her yard growing beautiful flowers. She also enjoyed walking and playing tennis with her friends. Jane will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. Many years after the death of her husband, Hugh, she was one of the fortunate few that found love again later in life. She and Bob Hellemn enjoyed walking together, spending time with both of their families and many new adventures together with their shared and very different interests. He introduced her to new foods, Cruises, and even the racing world and as proper as she has always been, she would sport her jeans and racing shirt with pride. They traveled near and far, including visiting her sisters hours away often and mostly enjoyed rocking on the front porch in the sun.

Mrs. Horah is survived by her daughter Rebecca (Donald) Braswell of Danielsville, GA, her son, Mike (Lisa) Horah of Buford, GA.; Six grandchildren,

Jason (Allison) Braswell, Dustin (Erin) Braswell, Daniel (Heidi) Braswell of Danielsville, GA.; Keelan (Kerianna) Horah of Nederland, CO., Evan and Eric Horah of Buford, GA. Twelve great grandchildren, Elaina and Reese Braswell, Olivia, Wyatt and Case Braswell, Noah, Levi and Adam Braswell; Aubree and Abby Horah; Ryleigh Horah and Braxton Horah. Also, her dear, sweet friend Bob Hellemn of Buford, GA, brother-in-law Bobby Fail of Claxton, GA. and sister, Annette Helmuth of Sylvania, GA.

Her service will be held on Thursday, December 17, 2020 at 3:30pm at Buford First United Methodist Church, 285 E. Main St. Buford, GA. 30518. Followed by a graveside service at Broadlawn Memorial Garden with pastors Jim Buckman and Kyung Kim. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to the Music Ministry at Buford First United Methodist Church.

“ So sorry to receive this news. I know your hearts are hurting and she will be greatly missed. When she visited our Sunday School class at JCUMC, she was so sweet and nice. You could feel her humbleness and caring heart. I pray God will be with all of you during these days and the days to come. He is our strength and peace and is always there for us. My sympathy is with this sweet family.

“ Granny Jane was always so loving to my boys, and they told me once you had to put Ritz crackers on food for it to be called a casserole, "That's what Granny Jane does." Prayers for good memories for all of you.

Jane and Hugh were our UMYF leaders when we were teenagers. Their sweet spirits and patience made them wonderful Christian examples for us youth. Jane's singing talent was a blessing to all in the First United Methodist Church. Becky and Mike, Lindsey and I send our love and prayers for you and your families! May God bless and keep you and give you strength!
