“ I would like to give my sincerest condolences to Missy,Chris and the rest of this beautiful family. My name is Marquise Lyde and I am Christian's Godfather. Over the last decade, I've had the honor of knowing Ms.Janice(As I so lovingly called her: Mama J). To the family, I hope and pray at some point you will gain comfort in knowing that she is now with the lord. Missy, my dear friend...my heart is with you at this time. You've done right by your mother and now she's at peace. To Chris, KNOW that you've made your grandma proud...and that she'll forever br watching over you. I love you

“ Where do I begin, I started working at Avita in 2014. Janice trained me on everything that I knew starting out. Janice was always nice and sweet to me. I remember getting discouraged, about being young in the position I was in, and Janice told me that as I get older and get more life experiences I would better understand more. I carry that with me until this day! I'll always remember the laughs we shared and the knowledge I gained from her. Heaven gained a real angel, rest on my friend. I love you!
