“ Jason was a colleague and friend in the chocolate industry, our grandfathers and fathers were also colleagues in molds and machinery and worked together in the industry. I have memories of spending time with him and his Dad Ron at the early trade shows in Pa. in the 90's , in more recent years he and I enjoyed reminiscing about our family history when we could. Even when we competed, Jason was always a gentleman and professional. His easy going nature allowed us work together for the overall good of the customer. He will be missed. Our sympathies, Sincerely, John Micelli and family
