“ There is so little one can say. So little one can do. But it may help somehow to know that my thoughts and prayers are there with you and your family. Javier was a kind, always polite person.

“ Nothing can take away the love that you and your son shared. I know that grief like this never ends because he was someone that you truly and deeply loved. May God give you the grace to accept the things that happened and the serenity to carry on living. Please know that my family and I are praying that God gives you the strength you need to deal with the most difficult moment of your life. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. God Bless
