“ Dearest Candy, I am so sorry for your loss. When I lived in College Park by Jay and Aunt Shirley, he was my best friend. We went everywhere together. Uncle Andy bought him a Chrysler Cordova and we rode around Atlanta like we were really something. I've thought about Jay often and am heart-broken over his passing. I know you are a wonderful and beautiful woman if he chose you for his wife. I appologize to you and yours for not staying in touch. I loved Jay like a brother and just knowing he's gone makes my heart ache. If you would ever like to talk, please e-mail me and I'll call you if it is okay. My deepest sympathy and sincerest condolences. May God bring you pease and assurance of life eternal. Love, Steve
