“ Even though we lived far apart, Jean was my big sister & often in my thoughts. I always envied her artistic talents: knitting, tatting, arts & crafts, cake decorating, stained glass, painting, etc. You name it, she could do it. Now she's with the Butkus/Daugird family. She has lots of company: Mom & Dad, Nancy, Tracie, our grandparents, aunts, uncles, & cousins. God bless you all.

I was fortunate to visit with Jean and meet her husband Bill around 2015, when my husband Ron and I were back on the east coast. Had lots of chats, church together and of course one day, being Daugird kids, made a batch of Lithuanian Kugle. Will miss her. So sorry Bill, and family for your loss.
With sincere sympathy,
Paulette and Ron

Bill, we are so sorry for the loss of Jean. She was vibrant, multi-talented, fun, and generous to all with her culinary skills. She was always ready to ride the Harley and we will cherish the memories of our time together.
With love,

“ As some people journey through life, they leave footprints wherever they go-

Footprints of kindness and love, courage and compassion, humor and inspiration, joy and faith. Even when they are gone, we can still look back and clearly see the trail they left behind- a trail bright with hope that invites us to follow. Jeanie touched many hearts, she enjoyed being kind to people, making them smile when they were sad or in pain.

I will see you soon my love, be with your Aunt Stella, Aunt Helen, Aunt Berna and your Grandpa. I will look for when I reach Heaven. God Bless and keep you safe.

I love you so much

Your Cowboy
