“ I am in deep prayer for the family of Jeff McDaniel. I have had the pleasure of knowing Jeff since he was 16 years old. He was a wonderful, funny, loving man. He will never know how much he was loved and will be missed by many. I know he is in Heaven now being a guardian angel for us here on earth!
May God be with his family and his friends at this time.

“ Thank you Jeff for spending some of your life with me, we've known each other since the mid 70's playing baseball at the Buford American Legion. Most recent, we've spent the last 10 or so years grilling those Hamburgers and Hotdogs for our Beloved BUFORD WOLVES on Friday nights. Tell Victor Carbine hello from all the grill boys. Jeff you will never know all the lives you touched through the years, you are truly missed and loved brother. RIP MAC DADDY, POO loves you brother.

“ The Dash
by Linda Ellis copyright 1996

*I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on the tombstone from the beginning...to the end.*

He noted that first came the date of birth and spoke the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

*For that dash represents all the time that they spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved them know what that little line is worth.*

*For it matters not, how much we own,
the cars...the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.*

*So, think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged.*

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real and always try to understand the way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives

like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile, remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

*?So, when your eulogy is being read,
with your life's actions to rehash... would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent YOUR dash?*

“ Danny and Barbara,

*Roger and I are so saddened to hear this news. If there is anything in this world we can do for you, we will certainly and gladly do it.
May the Lord comfort you and your family during this time. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. I am so sorry that I can't be there, but I'm handling a family member's illness myself. You are in my heart.*
