“ I’m just shocked and so very sad to hear this news. Knew him at Oxnard high school. Always looked forward to and loved his posts about various races he was running his birds in. And his various releases for baby announcements and weddings and the like. My heart goes out to his family and friends.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Jeff at APCO from 2005-2014. He was my favorite guy. Always with so much wisdom and snark. He loved teaching us younger kids the ropes. My favorite thing about Jeff was his love for pigeons and his stories of racing. My deepest sympathies to Cheryl and family. I know he will leave a tremendous space without his shining light.

“ My memories of Jeff are from my young-boy self. I thought he was a dashing, daring, dark-haired man who spent a generous amount of time with a little punk kid (me), more than most adults in my life at that time. He was rough with those older than me but so gentle with me, even as other family members teased me for being me. Even though we lost touch throughout the years, I'll always remember that noble quality he showed me. My sympathies and condolences to his many loved ones. Love, Warren.

“ This was the first memory that came to my mind and it goes way back. The cousins from Oxnard and cousins from Canoga Park would go stay with great aunt Lettie in Thousand Oaks. We would cross the highway early in the morning and sneak into the wild animal park. Of course Jeff and my brother John were the instigators. We would watch the elephants get washed and the lions go through their paces. We met many of people there. We had many great adventures together.

“ I lived with Jeff and his family for two intense summers when we were 16 and 17. My memories of our times together are some of my best and most cherished. To this day, I still recount to others our driving trip to Mazatlan and attending the Newport Pop festival. He will be missed by the many who loved him.

“ I truly will miss his wit and passion for all he did. I remember the first game I umpired with Jeff as a coach. Very good with his team and with officials.

“ My condolences to the family. I worked with Jeff at Apco for many years and shared a cubicle with him. We laughed, argued and laughed more. His love for his family, surfing and baseball was immense. Be at peace Coach. 🙏❤️

“ My heart is breaking right now at the loss of our dear friend Jeff. Jeff coached my son Brandon and was always a source of encouragement to him. After Brandon passed My husband and I would go out to eat at many local establishments in Lawrenceville and we would seem to run into Jeff all the time with his big smile and good wishes. God broke the mold when he made this wonderful man. He will be sorely missed. Now Jeff, please go find Brandon and make sure he is on the right path. Thank you for touching our lives.
