“ Fondest memory I have of Jeff was when I was little and his sis Debbie was married to my brother Wally and they lived down behind us in a trailer at CountyLine on the old homeplace. Whenever I was around down there and he was near he would always ask what I was doing and take time to talk to me, kick the ball with me or help me put the chain back on my bike. He had a tender heart and a jolly laugh. I'd like to say he was a kid at heart and always acknowledged me and joked around with me. I am sorry for the loss of the loved one but God will embrace him and give him a new body unbroken and flawless. Jerome Doster
