February 4, 1964 - February 12, 2026

Jeffrey Lee Wylie, age 62, of Chamblee, Georgia, passed away on February 12, 2026.

Jeffrey was born on February 4, 1964, at Georgia Baptist Hospital to John R. Wylie and Martha Lucille Wylie. He was a hardworking man who took great pride in running his own pressure washing business.

Jeffrey was a vibrant soul whose passions reflected his love for life. He had a deep love for dogs and enjoyed trying new restaurants. Whether spending time with friends and family, relaxing at the beach or lake, or simply enjoying the outdoors, he embraced every moment life had to offer. He also loved working out and staying active, as it reflected his commitment to living life fully. He is survived by his significant other, Jennifer Brennan; his brother, Johnny Wylie and wife Sherry Wylie; his sister, Sandra Ware and husband Phillip Ware; his nieces, Heather Harp and Margaret Wylie; his nephew, Jesse Wylie; his four great-nieces, Angel Patman, Larissa Patman, Sydni Harp, and Mariah Harp; and his beloved fur babies, Maddie, Hazel, and Harold Wylie.

Those who knew Jeffrey remember him as a one-of-a-kind individual — genuine, kind-hearted, and unforgettable. His warmth and authenticity touched many lives and left a lasting impression that will not fade.

Jeffrey will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ Jeff was one of the best human beings to ever live. His sense of humor could lift anyone's spirits on the darkest of days. What a tremendous loss. Condolences to his family and his sweet sweet dogs, he loved so much.

“ In 1997 I met and started working with Jeff. I found a good friend and body guard. When working on construction sites he was very handy with that. After I moved on to a different job, we stayed in touch and he continued to pressure wash all my other jobs up until a few months ago. We always took time to talk and catch up on everybody's business. Not sure he ever made a short term friend-- you were a friend to Jeff from the time you met him and forever more. I will miss Jeff--he was a great guy.

“ Jeff and his brother Johnny loved each other deeply. But as brothers do, they always act like they were kids again when they were together. Always telling each what to do.
