

Jennifer Johns White

April 27, 1972 - February 11, 2025

Jennifer Johns White, born on April 27, 1972, in Jacksonville, Fla. passed away on February 11, 2025 in Cumming, GA at the age of 52. She was a loving mother, a loyal daughter and an irreplaceable sister. Her pride and joy were her two sons Caleb and Conner.

Jennifer was a prolific writer as evidenced by her blog musings, she loved cheering on her football favorites, and truly enjoyed helping others during her impactful radiology career. She could make people laugh out loud but was never one to try and be the center of attention. Instead, she was introspective; she spent her life seeking out new information, challenging herself and others to stay open-minded and empathetic.

Jennifer was also a whiz in the kitchen, and she enjoyed showing her love for others by planning meals, gatherings and gifts tailored to the guest of honor. These acts of kindness will live on in our memories as a testament to how she worked to listen and understand those she loved.

Jennifer was the second of four Johns sisters and she showed an independent streak from an early age. She proved throughout her life she was brave enough to blaze her own path. She grew up in Jacksonville and eventually relocated to Texas, where she had her two beloved sons, Caleb (23) and Conner (21), who brought immeasurable meaning and love to her life. She moved to Georgia in her later years to be closer to her mom and sisters.

In addition to her boys, Jennifer leaves behind her mother, Janet Johns of Cumming, GA, her sisters, Lori Peterson of Suwanee, GA, Christa Hancock of Jacksonville Beach, FL, and Julie Johns of Roswell, GA, nephews Blake and Parker, and nieces Bryn and Piper. She was preceded in death by her father, Leo Willard Johns.

Jennifer left an indelible mark on the lives of those who knew her and will be deeply missed. Celebration of life services will be held at a later date.
