“ Our prayrs are with the family . I've known Jeri since 3rd grade at Northside then on to Division Ave HS. She was always really nice to everyone me included and her husband Clay and son Joshua I'm sure are proud of you. They may not realize the positive impact you had on others. You will be missed !!!

“ Please accept my very deepest condolences on the heartbreaking loss of our most beloved Jeri.

Jeri, my oldest, dearest and very best friend for 45 years, I miss you with all my heart and soul. Near or far, over all these years, we remained best friends through thick and thin. I love you and you'll be forever in my thoughts and prayers as will your family.

With all my love, my bestie,

Carolyn, Bobby and Family
